Tour of traditional Japanese community

June 4, 2016

Required Booking

10 people minimum

20 people max

The traditional architectures preservation district, Konoura, on Oshima Island, Hirado City. Oshima is an isolated port island rich in history. Throughout the 1600s operating as fishing community, and from the mid 17th century establishing a whaling trade, these days it has often been said to have the feel of as unchanging Edo period port town. Oshima is of precious value to this country.
